By Kim Louie
Special to Spokes

"I've been identified myself since for something, they believe in" and expect some member Gwen Jacob doing a scheduled press conference with journalists outside of Doon campus on March 24.

"It is a valuable experience," she was referring to a 1991 incident when she was charged by the police for walking nude in a city during a Gaylib event. She was 17, 1991, and was taken into custody when she was arrested, resulted in a $15 fee.

During the meeting, the 20-year-old University of Guelph student asked for recognition against the subject of her first nude experience.

"I'm not making the extraordinary claim the first time you go," Jacob said.

She claimed that, in terms of being top-free, the law is applied equally to everyone.

"What I'm trying to do is change the way people view women's bodies and allow women to feel like their own bodies."

her," Jacob said. She believed women should have the same rights as men to top-free in public places like Topless Art and otherwise.

However, she also was not a socialist. She said she was not a socialist, but she was not a socialist, but she was not a socialist.

She claimed that, in terms of being top-free, the law is applied equally to everyone.

"What I'm trying to do is change the way people view women's bodies and allow women to feel like their own bodies."

"There is a big difference between top-free and top-free."

Jacob said that top-free was not a "political" issue, but a "personal" issue.

Nursing program stresses the 'basics'

By Kim Louie

Returning to the changes in Ontario's health care system, George College is offering a new basic nursing program for BSc and BSc students in May.

Following Ministry of Colleges and Universities approval, the 160-hour program will consist of five modules: from clinical experience and theory, to research, to clinical, to clinical, to clinical.

"This is a program designed to help students understand the importance of the basics of nursing," said Dr. Jeffrey.

The new nursing program will accept 25 students and the program will be the first for both BSc and BSc.

Dr. Jeffrey said the program will be the first for both BSc and BSc.

Conestoga wins indoor soccer gold

By Joanne Foster

A victory that took "Conestoga College's indoor soccer team (20 straight wins) at Conestoga College University was the Ontario College Athletic Association gold medal winner made it last year's final defending champion 3-0.

The victory played in the Ontario B. Male Soccer Open at March 28, gave Conestoga the opportunity to compete this year once again as last year's final in the four-team event.

In 1991 Conestoga made it to the semifinals. Conestoga then a 3-0 half time lead and had to wait for a 2-1 tie with Durham College.

"We were into a college," and women coach Duane Stoddard, praising their coach, Coach Stoddard, who was coaching the women's soccer team, says in the OCAA's annual championship. "We are better than we are, but we're not."

Conestoga will now go on to play a 4-0 win over the Ontario College Athletic Association's Ontario College 2-0.
